

The STEM Academy

Tutoring Plan

Content teachers provide tutoring to all students before and after school and within specified study hall periods.

Monday - Thursday, students falling behind or struggling in course work attend academic recovery sessions hosted by the campus after school.

Daily reports are run for each student to track their academic progress and are used to form working academic goals during their advisory periods.